Let's Talk Commemoration / Parlons commémoration

Veterans Affairs Canada's online consultation on the future of remembrance in Canada opens June 18!

We want everyone who has served our country to see themselves in our remembrance and recognition programming. That's why we're reaching out to Veterans, currently serving CAF and RCMP members, their families and all Canadians for their ideas and input on how we can best recognize and commemorate Canada's military, peacekeeping and humanitarian missions.

Your opinion matters. Until 9 July 2022, you can provide feedback on our 10-year strategic plan and tell us how we can best recognize and remember Canada's Veterans.

Please share this message and encourage your networks to share their thoughts with us at letstalkveterans.ca/.

Paul Thomson,

Director General, Commemoration Division

Veterans Affairs Canada

Bonjour,

Les consultations en ligne sur le futur de la commémoration au Canada d'Anciens Combattants Canada débutent le 18 juin!

Nous voulons que tous ceux et celles qui ont servi notre pays se reconnaissent dans nos programmes de commémoration et de reconnaissance. C'est pourquoi nous demandons aux vétérans, aux membres actuels des FAC et de la GRC, à leurs familles et à tous les Canadiens de nous faire part de leurs idées et de leurs commentaires sur la meilleure façon de reconnaître et de commémorer les missions militaires, humanitaires et de maintien de la paix du Canada.

Votre opinion compte. Jusqu'au 9 juillet 2021, vous pourrez fournir vos observations sur notre Plan stratégique décennal et nous dire comment nous pouvons mieux reconnaître et commémorer les vétérans du Canada.

Veuillez partager ce message et encourager vos réseaux à nous faire part de leurs commentaires à l'adresse parlonsveterans2.ca/.

Paul Thomson,

Directeur général, Direction générale de la commémoration
Anciens Combattants Canada

Hello,

We are pleased to announce that the consultation on the future of remembrance is now live.

As Canada's Veterans evolve, so too should the ways we commemorate them. Earlier this year, we introduced our broadened approach to commemoration that aims to recognize all those who have served our country in uniform, here at home and around the world.

How do you think we should recognize and commemorate those who served in Canada's military, peacekeeping and humanitarian missions over the next decade?

We invite Veterans, their families and all Canadians to share their thoughts on this important topic through our online consultation on the future of remembrance.

The online consultation is open until 9 July 2021. We encourage you to share this widely within your network.

Thank you!

Bonjour,

Nous sommes heureux d'annoncer que la consultation sur l'avenir de la commémoration est maintenant ouverte.

À mesure que les vétérans du Canada changent, la manière dont nous les commémorons doit également changer. Plus tôt cette année, nous avons présenté notre approche élargie de la commémoration qui vise à reconnaître toutes les personnes qui ont servi notre pays en uniforme, ici à la maison et partout dans le monde.

Comment croyez-vous que nous devrions reconnaître et honorer les personnes qui ont participé aux missions militaires, humanitaires et de maintien de la paix du Canada au cours de la prochaine décennie?

Nous invitons les vétérans, leur famille et tous les Canadiens à formuler leurs commentaires sur cet important sujet par l'intermédiaire de notre consultation en ligne concernant l'avenir de la commémoration.

La consultation en ligne est ouverte jusqu'au 9 juillet 2021. Nous vous encourageons à partager la nouvelle dans tout votre réseau.

Merci!

Ministerial Advisory Groups Renewal / Renouvellement des groupes consultatifs ministériels

Ministerial advisory groups at Veterans Affairs Canada are an opportunity to share knowledge, expertise, and experiences with the Minister to help guide change and improve services for Veterans and their families.

We are looking for new members for all six Ministerial Advisory Groups – Policy; Service Excellence and Transition; Mental Health; Care and Support; Families; and Commemoration. Veterans, Canadians, and stakeholders from all regions of the country with diverse knowledge, expertise and experience who want to make a contribution are encouraged to apply. Please share this exciting opportunity with your networks.

To learn more visit ministerial advisory groups. Please note the review of applications will begin on 22 July 2021.

Sincerely,

Stakeholder Engagement and Outreach Team

Treatment benefits

About this program

If you qualify for the Treatment Benefits program, you will receive a VAC healthcare card.

This healthcare card provides coverage for such things as home health or hospital services, nursing services, appointments with specialists (such as physiotherapists, audiologists, and mental health providers), medical equipment, prosthetics, and prescriptions.

The extent of your coverage will depend on a number of factors, including how you qualified, your health needs and your individual circumstances.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, we have made temporary changes to the Treatment Benefits program to ensure you receive the treatment and services you need. Learn more.

Do I qualify?

You will qualify for healthcare coverage and receive a VAC healthcare card if you qualify for:

- a disability benefit,
 - the Veterans Independence Program,
 - the War Veterans Allowance, or
 - financial assistance from VAC for long-term care.

How to apply

You do not need to apply for the treatment benefits program or for a VAC healthcare card. A card will be sent directly to you after you have received one of the benefits listed above.

If you are a still-serving member of the Canadian Armed Forces or the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, you will typically receive your card after you release from service as these benefits will be provided by your home organization, not by VAC.

Get help

If you have questions about your health coverage or about VAC's treatment benefits program, visit any VAC office or call us at 1-866-522-2122. You can also contact Medavie Blue Cross.

How to use your VAC healthcare card

Often, you only need to show your VAC card to the provider of your choice to receive health benefits or services.

The provider may also need to see your prescription from your doctor or health professional and receive pre-authorization from VAC before they can provide the benefit or service to you.

- Prescription – A prescription is valid for one year from the date on it. It confirms you are under the care of a health care professional and details their recommended therapy for your health need. To learn who can provide a prescription, see the section – Prescriber Required – in that benefit's details of the Benefit Grid.

- Pre-Authorization -To find if pre-authorization is needed, see the section – Pre-authorization Required – in that benefit’s details found in the Benefit Grid. Your provider can contact us (or Medavie Blue Cross at 1-866-811-6060) for pre-authorization. Most services will only need pre-authorization once.

Using a registered provider –A registered provider can bill Veterans Affairs Canada (VAC) directly so you do not need to pay out of pocket. To find registered providers in your area, please contact us or use your Medavie Blue Cross account.

Using any other provider –You may have to pay this provider for their services and then seek reimbursement from VAC.

Please note: we may not be able to reimburse the cost of services you purchased prior to having pre-authorization.

Reimbursement

To receive reimbursement, you need to send your request within 18 months from the date you received the treatment benefit or service. The provider must be:

- licensed or certified by your province or territory; or
- where no provincial or territorial regulations exist, they must meet requirements set by VAC.

To receive reimbursement, you will need to submit your proof of payment (original receipt or invoice) that shows:

- the date you received the benefit or service;
- the name of the benefit or service;
- the amount you paid; and,
- the name and address of the provider.

You can submit your request through your secure account at www.medavie.bluecross.ca/MyInfo or download the form and mail it to:

National Reimbursement Centre
PO Box 6700
Moncton, NB E1C 0T8

Sign up for Direct Deposit to receive your reimbursements directly into your bank account.

Programs of Choice

Read the overview of each of the fourteen (14) health care benefits programs, known as the programs of choice, provided by Veterans Affairs Canada

Benefit grids

The Benefit Grids are a resource for both providers and recipients. This national database shows the requirements for benefits and services available within the fourteen (14) programs of choice, except for dental (POC 4), medical (POC 6) and prescription drugs (POC 10).

Dental and medical professionals can contact Medavie Blue Cross whenever they have questions about coverage.

The drug formulary is a database of prescription medicines (POC 10) covered by Veterans Affairs Canada.

Frequencies and dollar limits

There are frequency and dollar limits for most benefits. To determine if your benefit has any, view that benefit's details in the Benefit Grid.

You, your doctor or your health professional should contact us if your prescribed treatment will exceed these limits.

Medavie Blue Cross online

Through your secure account at www.medavie.bluecross.ca/MyInfo, you can:

- Find a list of registered providers;
 - Find claim forms and other documents;
 - View your claim status, explanations, and claims archive;
 - Find your coverage details; and
 - Request a replacement card (or print a temporary card).

Health-related travel

Your VAC health card is valid everywhere in Canada. However, before traveling to another province, we recommend that you call us for advice on how to get services outside of your home province. If the provider in that province will not accept your card as payment, you may have to pay for the benefit and then request reimbursement from VAC.

Please note: if you are traveling outside of Canada, health providers in other countries will not accept your card as payment.

Reimbursement

We can cover eligible travel expenses to receive benefits or services in Canada. Learn more about reimbursement for health-related travel.

Currently serving in the military or RCMP?

If you have qualified for a disability benefit, your health services will be provided by your home organization until you release from service, except for Class A or Class B (180 days or less) Reservists whose health services will be provided by VAC.

What to do when you are releasing:

- Canadian Armed Forces members –please ensure your discharge documents have been provided to your Health Services Centre (CF H Svcs C). Incorrect release date information can delay your access to VAC’s treatment benefits.
- RCMP members –please contact us to provide your discharge date.

Note: If you are a member of the RCMP, with prior service in the Canadian Armed Forces, and receive a disability benefit related to your CAF service, your health coverage for that condition will be provided by VAC, not the RCMP. Please contact us if you experience any difficulty accessing your coverage.

Related programs

Disability benefits: compensation to recognize that your injury or illness is a result of your service.

Frequently asked questions

Can I appeal any decision VAC makes about my treatment benefits?

Yes. If you are not satisfied with the decision, you have the right to request a review There are two levels of review.

- First Level Review –The decision letter (or your explanation of benefits document) indicates how to submit a request for a first level review.
 - Final Review –The decision letter for your first level review will indicate how to request a final (known as a second level) review.

Does my provider need to call VAC for pre-authorization each year, even if I am requesting the same benefit or service?

For most benefits and services, VAC only requires pre-authorization the first time you obtain a benefit or service. However, certain benefits require pre-authorization each time you request the benefit. The Benefit Grid can help your provider determine which requirements apply to their service.

I am about to release from military service, how do I ensure my health services will continue after my release date?

If you are receiving health benefits from the Canadian Armed Forces and you currently have a VAC disability benefit, you can request a review of your CAF health services to determine which benefits can be covered by VAC after your release. This review will also save you any unnecessary paperwork to continue your benefits. Learn more.

Can I choose any supplier or provider of treatment benefits and services?

You may obtain treatment benefits and services from a supplier or provider of your choice who meets VAC provider requirements. Contact us or Medavie Blue Cross if you have any questions regarding these provider requirements.

Are there policies for this program?

Yes. Read more about the policies for Veterans.
